Taft's First Official Work Done This Morning--
At Work Early In The Day.

SENATE PASSES ON APPOINTMENTS

Fred W. Carpenter Named As Private Secretary--Other Business, Including Loeb's Appointment, Taken Up And Disposed Of.

Washington, March 5.—President Taft began active work in the executive office at nine thirty this morning. Many prominent persons called upon him during day.

One of the first appointments made by President Taft this morning was that of Fred W. Carpenter, who was named as private secretary to the

FRED W. CARPENTER, SECRETARY TO PRESIDENT WM. H. TAFT

President, one of the most important officers at the disposal of the new President.

Mr. Carpenter has been Taft's private secretary for some time past, first going to him when he was Governor of the Philippines and later being in Washington with him. He has relatives in Janesville, Milwaukee and Madison.

At noon today Vice-President Sherman called the United States Senate together and announced to the President that they were organized and ready to conduct any business that might be necessary.

The President immediately sent in the names of his cabinet officers as follows:

Secretary of the Navy—George Von Meyer of Massachusetts.
Secretary of the Interior—Richard A. Ballinger of Washington.
Secretary of Agriculture—James Wilson of Iowa.
Secretary of Commerce and Labor—Charles Nagel.
All the cabinet officers were immediately confirmed, as were the appointments of William J. Loeb of New York to be collector of the Port of New York, Huntington Wilson to be assistant secretary of state, and Beckham Whitcomb to be assistant secretary of the Navy, and Wilson to be assistant secretary of state.

SIGNS CREDENTIALS OF SEN. STEPHENSON

Governor Davidson Authenticates His Election as United States Senator.

Madison, Wis., March 5.—The credentials of United States Senator Isaac Stephenson left Madison last night for Washington, will be presented to the Senate tomorrow and the victor of the first Wisconsin senatorial primary election will be immediately seated, for he is now possessed of credentials about which there can be no question.

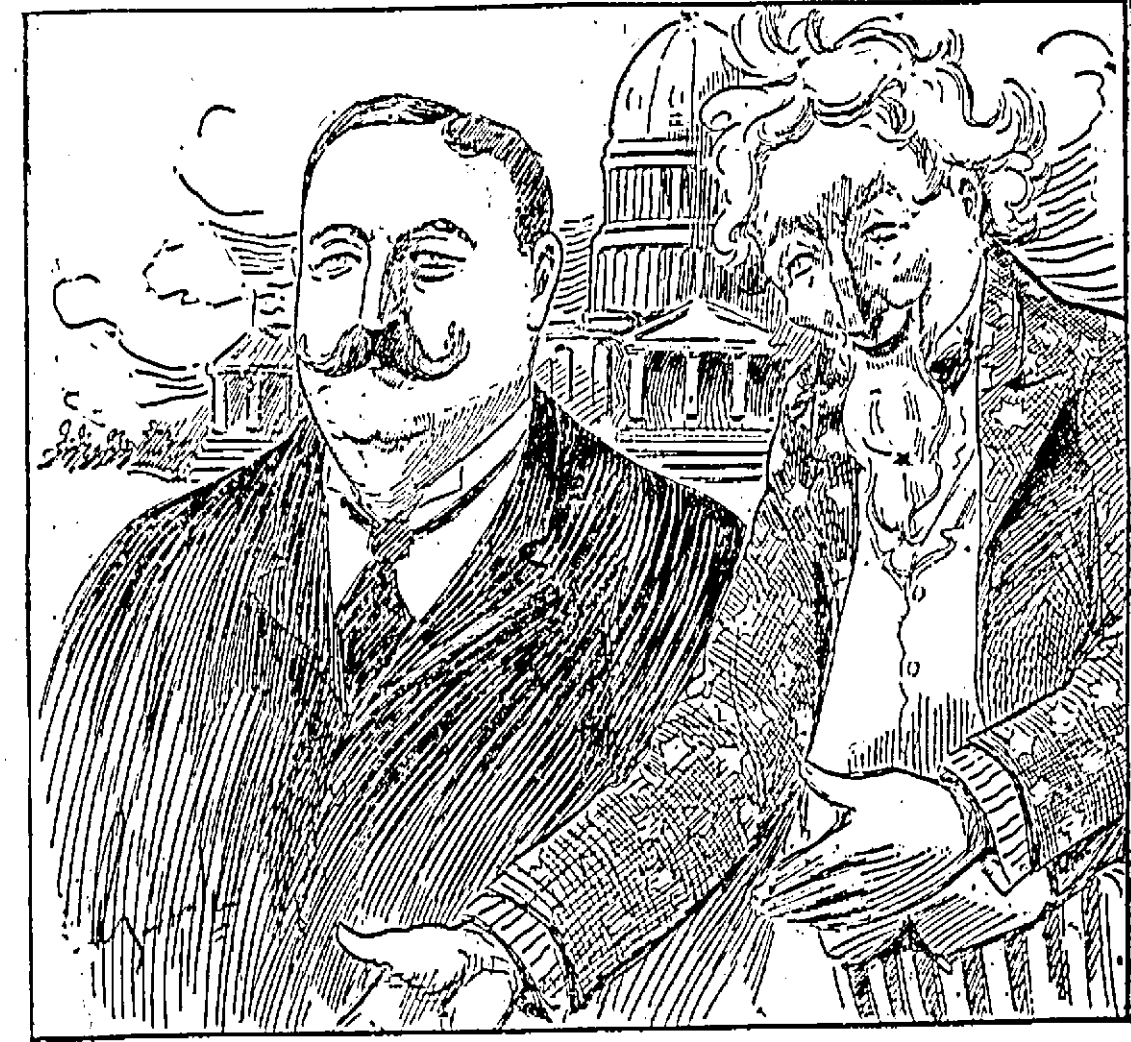

So charged were the Republicans of the primary election that they called "fraud" and "bribery," but nothing of a nature to suggest substantiality of these charges is heard even in the latest gossip of the statehouse or hotels.

It was said that Assemblyman De-machowski had declared he had been "approached" with an offer of $1,500 to stay out of the joint session, but he denied the story before taking a train last evening for Milwaukee.

The investigation will continue, because the legislature demands that all sides be probed, not only the case of Senator Stephenson, which has practically monopolized the committee's time thus far.

All of the seats in the theatre were sold several days ago at a premium and it is expected the net profit to Mrs. Wallack will aggregate several thousand dollars. The beneficiaries of the fund will be the money apportioned to go over to her, once well known to the stage herself, is now an old woman somewhat infirm and the money will be gratefully received.

NEW BRIDGE OVER THE RIO GRANDE

Mexican Government and Railways and St. L. & M. Prepare to Connect Two Systems.

CITY OF MEXICO, March 5.—The contract between the National Railways of Mexico, the Mexican Government, and the St. Louis, Brownsville & Mexico Railroad for the building of an international bridge across the Rio Grande to connect the two systems of railroad has been formally signed. The plans for the proposed bridge were approved some time ago, and it is reported the material for it has been ordered.

It is learned that the long delay in beginning work on this bridge was due to differences that arose as to what point on the Rio Grande the bridge should be located. President Diaz insisted that the bridge should be built to connect Brownsville and Tampora, or not at all, and this was finally agreed to by all of the parties interested.

The present Matamorras terminus of the National Railways of Mexico is situated about five miles from the proposed bridge crossing. It is estimated the bridge will cost over half a million dollars. The connecting of the two railroad systems will mean the opening of a new gateway of travel between Mexico and the United States.

REFUSES TO AID IN THE PROSECUTIONS

CAN NOT FINISH WORK OF SESSION

HUNDRED DAYS WILL NOT BE ENOUGH FOR COMPLETING WORK ON HAND.

WILL LAST INTO JUNE

Many Important Matters Have Barely
Been Begun—Legislature Will Be Busy From Now On.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Madison, Wis., March 5.—Speaker Bancroft's slogan, "A 100-day limit is losing its intensity. It practically is agreed that no matter what the members are taken to shorten the session, it will last into June. Ultra-conservatives, however, the opinion that it will last at least well into May. Claims that it will end in April are heard no more.

These views are held even in the light of the steering committee's resolution to appoint four special committees to work on the "big four bills" during a long adjournment and then to report on them at a special session to be called January 1, 1910. This resolution passed the assembly yesterday and was assented to by the Senate. Under the rules it will not come up for disposition in the upper house until Saturday and the chances are that it will not come up before next Tuesday.

This resolution provides for the appointment of four special committees, each to be composed of four assemblymen and three senators. They are to be assigned to the four big subjects that must be disposed of under republican platform promises and votes of the people in the November election. These subjects are: Improvement of public highways, income tax, banking laws, and industrial insurance for workmen.

The plan as outlined at this time is to have the committees hold sessions after the adjournment this spring and to announce their reports in October or early in November. This would give them time to have their reports and the text of the bills printed and sent to every member. Then when the legislature met in special session in January it would be ready to get down to concrete facts and dispose of the questions with dispatch.

This, at least, is the plan. Assemblyman M. J. Cleary, in his speech apropos of the resolution yesterday, said that it was planned to have the special committees hold sessions in different parts of the state in order that they might gather views of different communities.

Assemblyman Ingram and others who oppose the "social plan," say among other things that it is impractical because, for one thing, it will be too late next January to make any improvement. Then, the money apportioned would have to go over to another session with resultant arguments on the law itself. Another argument which is made against the special session is that it would indicate procrastinating tendencies on the part of members. They urge that it is the duty of the whole legislature to get through with its business without delay and they take the stand that the appointment of special committees would mean great and unwarranted delay.

The fact, however, that Assemblyman Cleary and Senator Sanborn, who are at the head of the plan for a special session, is an indication to many members that the idea is born of high motives.

Along with the apparent delay in getting through the 1200 odd bills introduced at this session, the bill by Assemblyman Frank Hammill is of special interest. It was introduced early in the session but has been in a committee room. The bill provided for a constitutional amendment limiting legislative sessions to 100 days. Hammill's bill, Mr. Hammill has indicated of past sessions showing the great mass of measures that have been passed in closing hours of sessions of other years.

Changes in school boards of counties and more particularly the board of Milwaukee were the topics before the assembly committee on education yesterday afternoon and evening. Several members of the Milwaukee school board and Superintendent of Schools Carol G. Pearso were here to hear changes the board from one composed of members elected at large to one of members elected from districts. Mr. Pearso, A. J. Landemann, and others of the board are against any change.

They want the board to remain as it is. They were opposed before the committee by Fred Brockhausen and F. J. Weber, social democrats, who said that the at-large election precluded the possibility of a mixed board. The death of the bill is expected. It was introduced by Assemblyman Carl Hermann. Hermann by the name of the writer not having the school boards which shall elect their superintendents of schools, is receiving favorable attention by the committee and promises to become a law. It is favored by the Wisconsin State Teachers' association.

Vigorous opposition has developed to the continuation of the state twice plant, now under construction at the state prison at Waupun. The appropriation of $125,000 given by the legislature two years ago has been spent in the construction of the building, and now the legislature is asked to appropriate $200,000 more to provide machinery and material.

The most conspicuous form this opposition has taken is found in an editorial in the current issue of the American Thresherman, published in Madison, whose editor, H. B. Clarke, has written in his characteristic style a philippic which has been distributed to every member of the legislature.

Editor Clarke presents the results of an investigation of the Indiana prison factory. He says of last year's (Concluded on page 6.)

CRUISERS GOING TO WEST INDIES

CHESTER, SALEM, AND BIRMING-HAM SOON TO SAIL.

TEST OF CURTIS TURBINE

Will Determine Its Efficiency as Compared with Parsons-Westinghouse and Old Reciprocating Engines.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Washington, D. C., March 5.—The great cruisers Chester, Salem and Birmingham, which formed a part of the squadron that escorted the Atlantic battleship fleet into Hampton Roads, have gone to Bradford, R. I., for coaling preparatory to the comparative tests of the three vessels which will undergo. As soon as they have completed their coaling the three vessels will make a long cruise to the West Indies in order to make a comparative test of the relative merits of the three types of machinery with which they are equipped.

The coaling tests promise to engross the undivided attention of naval men. The interest lies in the fact that while all three of the cruisers have the same lines, the same tonnage and the same estimated speed, each has a motive power radically different from the other. In these types of ships the naval officers will have an excellent chance to figure out for themselves the relations between the turbine and reciprocating engines. Not only that, the reciprocating engines will be placed in rivalry against two types of turbine engines and in the final analysis soon to be worked out by the Navy Department will be in a position to know whether the old-style reciprocating engine—old but still very effective—is the equal of either of Parsons or the Curtis turbine engine.

The cruiser Chester is equipped with the Parsons-Westinghouse turbine engines, an English patent with an American development. The Birmingham is equipped with the reciprocating engines now in use in virtually every vessel of the United States Navy. The third, scout cruiser, with the Curtis or American type of turbine engines. As all three cruisers are designed to maintain a speed of twenty-four knots an hour, and as each one is equipped with propelling machinery different from the other, the study, from an engineering standpoint, at once becomes interesting and valuable.

Probably the greatest interest will be centered in the performance of the Salem, which is equipped with the Curtis turbine engines, because this type of engine is entirely new to fighting ships and because the warships have had no reasonable chance to watch the workings of the engine designed by the young American whose name the new type of machinery bears. The only large ship now equipped with the Curtis turbines is the Crole of the Southern Pacific Steamship Company's line which is a sixteen knot ship, but which has not been a great success so far. This has been due, though, to several causes for which the turbine is not to blame. One reason is that a turbine engine is essentially a fast-moving engine and the best of results engineers say, can never be gotten out of them while going at a low rate of speed.

The turbines of the Salem will be a quite distinct departure from those on the Crole, several important changes having been made in their construction as a result of watching the trial of the turbines on the Crole. Interest in the workings of the Salem's engines will be accentuated by the fact that it is this type of engine which the Government is installing in the 20,000-ton battleship North Dakota, recently launched at the yards of the Ford River Shipbuilding Company.

It will not necessarily be the best type of engine that makes the fastest speed on these new cruisers for there are many other things to be taken into consideration besides speed. The engineering experts will want to know the coal consumption, necessary to produce a certain horsepower in the boilers and a certain speed at the propeller blades, not to speak of the water consumption and many other details. The ship that will make the fastest speed with the least consumption of coal and water, in other words the ship that will develop the greatest amount of force with the least energy expended, is the boat that is likely to bring credit to the style of engine which she carries.

TEXAS EDUCATIONAL CONFERENCE IS ON

Third Annual Meeting Was Opened at Austin Today With a Large Attendance.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Austin, Texas, March 5.—The Conference for Education in Texas, which was organized two years ago, began its third annual meeting here today under conditions that give promise of a highly interesting and profitable session. The rapid growth of the membership of the organization is welcome evidenced by the large number of educators and others who are in the city to take part in the sessions, which will continue two days.

The program arranged for the gathering is filled with many interesting features. A number of prominent speakers will be heard, including university professors, city and county superintendents, and others, while the papers and discussions will deal with a wide range of subjects relating to educational work and the advancement of education in Texas.

The officers in charge of the conference are: President, Clarence Ousley, Fort Worth; vice-president, N. N. Harrington, College Station; recording secretary, A. N. McCallum, Austin; corresponding secretary, W. S. Sutton, Austin; treasurer, E. P. Wilmoth, Austin, and general agent, C. E. Evans, Austin.

DIRE ATTEMPT TO END HIS EXISTENCE

Was Made by John Crubaugh at Wheelock Mansion Last Night—
Very Untidy Method Tried.

Tears from the wife and profuse promises by the prisoner, that he would make no more efforts to carry out such foul designs, this morning effected the release of John Crubaugh, who is supposed to have made a serious attempt to end his life last evening.
A key to the door had been turned at the Wheelock mansion on North Franklin street, where the Crubaugh family have apartments, and about eight o'clock Mrs. Crubaugh blew into the police station with a badly cut hand and gave a more or less coherent account of her husband's attempt to commit suicide.

It appears that Mrs. Crubaugh is divorced from her former husband, who is now said to be located somewhere north of here, but that he has threatened to return and either take her away or murder her. Last fall he came to Janesville with some purpose in mind and hung about the city until the police found him upon him. Crubaugh is a man of about 40 years of age, of a somewhat morose and sullen disposition, and it was in such a morose mood that he lay down beside her on a bed last evening and after whispering out a jackknife, started to cut his throat.

The wife at once proceeded to block this program and had a slash cut across her fingers for her pains. Finally, however, she took the cutlery away from him. Hubby then reached for his razor but she also forestalled him in this move and ran with it to the police station.

During some of his morose spells,
Mr. Crubaugh has threatened to bind his two children to himself and bring down on some convenient section of railroad track, several times threatening to do so. He has been in the city for some time, and it is not surprising that he should be so crushed into submission.

The above plan, also, he has agreed to forsake. Crubaugh is said to be a good workman, but for some days past he has been out of a job.

ANNUAL BANQUET OF
MEN'S BARACA CLASS

Second Yearly Affair of Baptist Church Class Will Be Given Next Friday.

Friday evening, March 12, the members of the Men's Baraca Class of the Baptist church will have their annual banquet in the parlors of the church. The plans, which are now well under way, are being made for a fine supper with an excellent program following, and it is expected that fully one hundred men will be in attendance. The supper will be served at seven o'clock and after the wants of the inner man have been satisfied, the evening will be devoted to a musical and literary entertainment. Prominent local business men and lawyers will deliver short addresses. Among the speakers of the evening will be Thomas R. Nolan, Ally Norcross and A. E. Matheson.

TWO FIRES IN THE
CITY THIS MORNING

Gasoline Stove Caught Fire at Sweet Home on Mineral Point Ave.— Chimney Fire.

What might have been a very serious fire this morning at six o'clock was put out after doing about $15 damages. The fire broke out in the kitchen of the home of Allen Sweet at the time when a gasoline stove with gasoline and having turned out all burners before she started to fill the reservoir she thought that there was no danger. But in a few seconds the gas became ignited and the flames spread very rapidly, burning two doors and the floor slightly.
An attempt was made by some of the family to reach the fire station, but they were unable to get central, so gave up the attempt. With the aid of neighbors, who smothered the fire with rugs, the flames were extinguished after a hard fight lasting about an hour.

At ten o'clock an alarm was sent to the station to put out a chimney fire in the "Terra" flats. In the rooms occupied by Mrs. Kearney. The fire was extinguished with chemicals.
The damage done was nominal.

SAILOR ROBBED AT A LODGING HOUSE

Man Named Berg Who Took a Stranger to Bed with Him Found
Clothes and Money Missing
This Morning.

It was a sailor named Berg who woke this morning in the Patrick Hyler restaurant and boarding house, located between Potomac and the St. Charles hotel, to discover that he had figuratively been "burning a hole in his pocket." Last night Berg ran across a stranger who struck his fancy and took him to supper and to bed with him. When daylight crept through the shutters he looked around to find his bed-mate gone and his clothes and $3 or $4 in change, which they had contained, also missing. The fugitive had thoughtfully left his own clothes behind. This was the story which Mr. Berg later on told the police. He, also, is a stranger in the city.

GERMAN SUPPER FOR PHILOTAHAN GIRLS

Young Ladies Enjoyed Most Delightful Repast After Regular Meeting.

Yesterday afternoon in the high school, the Philotaxian society held their regular meeting at which a very pleasant program was given and enjoyed by the members of the club.
Following the meeting the girls adjoined the Daughters Art room where a most tempting repast, prepared and served by the young ladies themselves, was enjoyed. The feast was in the form of a German supper and took place at six o'clock. This is one of a number which the girls have had during the year and which add to the pleasure of the literary gatherings.

general rumor is that the crossing entirely successful. The car was Stringent orders have been issued by Superintendent E. J. Wade that no engineers or firemen lay off without good excuse during the month of sale vacations will be allowed in the future.

SEEKING HEIRS OF
WILLIAM M'DONALD

Havre, Montana, Parties Believe That Descendants May Still Be Residing in This Vicinity.

From J. H. Thompson, a resident of Havre, Montana, Registrar of Deeds Charles Wierick, has received a letter asking for information regarding any possible descendants or relatives of one William McDonald who may be residing in this vicinity. McDonald, who died recently at Havre, is supposed to have taken out his first citizenship papers at Janesville in 1855, but a careful examination of the records shows only Michael McDonald who was granted these papers on October 27, 1855; another Michael Mc-Donald and a Thomas McDonald who became citizens the following year; but no William McDonald. The letter reads as follows:

Havre, Montana, March 1, 1900.
To the Clerk and Recorder, Janesville, Wis.

Dear Sir—An old man by the name of Wm. McDonald died here recently.
I think he was about 82 years old.
Very eccentric in his ways. He told me several years ago that he had logged in Wisconsin for years; that he also took out his first papers at Janesville to become a citizen, during Buchanan's campaign, 1855. He has left quite a valuable 160 acres located eight miles from Havre. Is it possible that he may have relatives still around Janesville. He came to Montana in 1893. Any information regarding Mr. McDonald will be greatly appreciated.

Yours respectfully,
J. D. THOMPSON.

DESPERADO HARTEN
IS AGAIN AT LARGE

Overpowered Sheriff Ball at Monroe Jail Last Evening and Made Good His Escape.

Fred Harten, the bold young bandit from Evansville who, with Bert Kreng-er, planned to rob Banker C. W. Carpenter at Broadhead last Saturday night and after failing to carry out this design, committed a murderous assault on George Chas. of that city, stole a land-clear at Bedfordville, and unloaded and carried home a large quantity of dressed pork, hams, and boxes of tobacco from a freight car in the C. & N. W. train which carried them from Monro to Evansville at an early hour Sunday morning, made his escape from the Green county jail at Monroe, at seven o'clock last evening, after a desperate attack on Sheriff H. L. Ball.

The officer was entering his cell to remove the supper dishes when Harten swung on him with a heavy plun-ger which he had removed from an old fashioned closet. Though dazed by the blow, the sheriff was not completely overcome, and he fought the prisoner, striking him twice before they climbed and went to the floor. In this struggle Harten got the upper hand and after brutally beating his opponent, threw him over the stairway railing to the first floor. Miss Gertrude Ball, the sheriff's daughter, appeared upon the scene as the struggle was nearing its finish and ran to remove the key from the outer door. The girl followed him for a door, screaming for assistance in the pursuit, but there was no one to stop the fugitive or head him off.

Sheriff Ball was unconscious for a time but was soon revived. There were ugly cuts in his scalp on the top and back of his head.

Telegrams and telephone calls were sent to all directions advising the officers of a score of cities and towns of the bandit's escape and Chairman Truham of the county board authorized District Attorney McElrath to offer a reward of $200 for Harten's recapture. The youth is 23 years of age, dark complexioned, and of slight build. Whether or not he directed his way southward along the route of the Wisconsin Central or headed towards Janesville is problematical. He had made a full confession of his previous crimes and had been bound over to the circuit court on a charge of assault with intent to rob. Marshal Cal Broughton of Evansville arrested him in Janesville Monday night and it was expected that he would be brought back here to appear before Judge Grimm.

This is the third delivery, within a period of little over a year, from the Monroe jail. Louis Parry was awaiting trial there for the theft of over a thousand dollars' worth of furs at Broadhead, and was confined there over a year. He was confined there overpowered the wife of the then sheriff and made good his escape. Harten was confined in the upper tier of cells of the women's compartment, that section of the jail being otherwise unoccupied.

Marshal Cavanaugh of Broadhead was in Janesville all day yesterday and was apprised of the bandit's escape just before his departure for home. All the officers who accompanied the original capture agree that the Harten is one of the most desperate characters with whom they have had to deal for many months and every precaution was taken during his temporary confinement here.

Local Officers on Trail

At eleven o'clock last evening Deputy Sheriff Ball, a brother of the Green county sheriff, telephoned Chief Appley that his posse believed they had located Harten in a place of woods south of Judd. At 2 a. m. this morning officers were received that the trail was hot south of Broadhead and Monroe authorities asked Janesville officers to assist in the pursuit.
John Brown and William Mason caught a freight train to Broadhead and at three o'clock started southward from that point with a livery rig.
Later on this morning Officer Fred Gibbons of Evansville passed through on his way to Rockford, his plan being to move across country from that point to Deontion. Meanwhile Marshal Cal Broughton of Evansville is moving westward from Beloit in the hope of intercepting Harten, in case he has taken a southerly route.

A Waste of Time.

Most men fool away so much valuable time trying to be like somebody else that they have no chance to

THE TREASURY DEFICIT

"While President Taft assumes the duties of his high office with the certainty that the fiscal year ending with the first six months of his administration will disclose a treasury deficit of $110,000,000 or more, there may be some compensating advantages for a new administration," says the Wall Street Journal.

"During considerable periods in the earlier stages of the present fiscal year the excess of treasury expenditures over receipts averaged more than $500,000 per day. The total deficit was increased by $6,567,587 during February, and at the end of that month the deficit for the year ending June 30, 1909, was $86,361,980. Conditions warrant the expectations that the last quarter of the year will witness another large increase in the shortage."

"To begin business handicapped with such financial conditions would be discouraging to an administration less resourceful than President Taft's should prove. The situation, however, will probably be found less difficult than it appears. Business conditions throughout the country are substantially sound. Credit, both public and private, is strong; imports show a healthful increase; there is always the prospect of average crops. The elements which make for returning prosperity manifest growing vitality even if the growth is slow. Consequently, while it is true, as President Grant once obviously remarked that 'it is easier to deal with a surplus than with a deficit,' it is scarcely less true that the country has rarely if ever been better prepared to deal with a deficit than it is today."

"The fiscal policy of an incoming administration is naturally the object of the keenest public interest, deepened in the present case by the conditions which now beset the national treasury. The first heavy test, therefore, of President Taft's administrative policies will have its center and determinative results in the measures he devises for safeguarding the public credit."

"The treasury deficit is likely, indeed, to bestow a service of twofold value on the new administration. It will operate as an effective check to extravagance in appropriations by the incoming congress, and serve as a warning against radical or ill-considered legislation on questions of tariff and finance. The legitimate business interests of the country require a period of calm in which to recover from the disconcerting experiences of the last two years, and the best evidence of their need in that respect is the condition of the treasury itself. They embody the forces which, if permitted to resume their normal activity and exercise their natural functions, will convert the deficit into a surplus. The popularity and strength of President Taft's administration will be measured by the degrees in which his fiscal policies contribute toward that end."

from the extreme radical legislation.

He touches upon the regulation of railroads by reorganizing the commissions that now handle the work. He stands for an equitable revision of the tariff along sane and conservative lines. He reiterates his views relative to labor and injunctions and the secondary boycotts and favors legislation that shall increase the liabilities of the Federal government towards its employees.

Strict economy in the administration of the government, not in any way to hold back our national defense, he would encourage foreign trade and place certain stress upon the good will of the South and the negro problem.

He supports the Panama canal project and deprecates the criticism. As a whole the message breathes confidence and good cheer and has all the tonic influence of a great man's personality.

STEPHENSON ELECTED

Jesse Stephenson has been elected United States Senator from Wisconsin. Despite the efforts and machinations of the radical republicans, who took their cue from Washington, he was named after a long delay. It is but an incident in the struggle which the La Follette members of the legislature attempted, but even after Stephenson was elected at the joint ballot Thursday, they attempted to block the issuing of the credentials on the plea of fraud. Even following this up with a cry of bribery. The whole opposition to Stephenson came from La Follette, who used Blaine, Sanborn, Marsh and others as his tools. He lost the play and his former friend will take his seat in Washington as a United States Senator when congress convenes in its special session.

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

Copyright, 1909, by American Press Association.

"BE SOMEBODY."

Most of us go with the current because it is easier to drift than to take up the oars and pull up stream.

Be somebody.

Most of us lack individualism, or, as we usually put it, individuality.

Most of us are prone to be content with things as they are. We are content to be like other people. Conventionality gets in the way of individuality. What others do determines what we do.

The person with individuality stands out, looms large. There are so few of him.

"To cultivate your personality and make it a force you must assert it."

You cannot do that by going along the line of least resistance. You must often go along the line of MOST resistance. And that helps some, because resistance overcome makes for forceful character.

The tendency today is toward making men alike, turning them out as if by molds—all of a pattern.

Centralization of industry, combination, puts men into herds—and controls the herds.

The mere unit of society—the YOU—will, if it is not careful, be merged into the crowd. But if the you—the unit—will protest and persist it will get above the crowd and—

Be somebody.

Every man who has become somebody, who has done things, has been dependent, not upon conditions, not upon relatives nor upon society nor upon luck, but upon HIMSELF.

To be somebody one must be different from everybody.

But—

There is one grave danger in trying to be somebody. In trying to assert oneself, in trying to be different from everybody.

If everybody sees that in trying to be somebody, in holding yourself above the crowd, you are egotistic in your effort and concealed in your spirit, why—the crowd will pull you down to its level, and justly.

If you want to be somebody you must be modest about it. All great souls are modest and helpful and kindly.

Remember, you are not asserting yourself arrogantly over others. You are asserting yourself over your LOWER SELF, over your subliminal self. You are making your HIGHER SELF DOMINANT.

Be somebody—within yourself, of yourself, by yourself.

It is to be expected now that the weather man's head will be the first to drop into the official waste basket when Taft begins making his changes. The idea of having it sleet and snow when a President is inaugurated of all days!

There is nothing like a wealth of material to select a good city clerk from. Three men have their eyes upon the office on the republican ticket and one on the democratic. But one can be elected.

Both Taft and Roosevelt are smiling today and so is Stephenson and his many friends. March Fourth meant a lot to them, one and all.

With three men seeking the republican nomination for Mayor matters ought to begin to get interesting in a few days.

Wall street hopes for four years of the simple life, but will it get it? That is the question that needs to be answered.

Aspirants for local office are still busy with the wily voters seeking to carry their favor by pre-nomination promises.

T. Roosevelt is now a private citizen—only he has a title of Ex in front of his name.

RECEIVER FOR DIG CONCERN.

Dering Coal Company, $5,000,000 Corporation in Financial Straits.

Chicago, Mar. 5.—The Dering Coal Company of Delaware, a $5,000,000 corporation which operates mines valued at $5,000,000 in Illinois and Indiana, and has further assets of $1,075,000, was placed in the hands of William C. Niblack, vice-president of the Chicago Title & Trust Company, as receiver by Judge Kohlsaat in the circuit court yesterday. While the general offices are in Chicago, preparations for ancillary receiverships were made in jurisdictions where the company has property.

The petition was filed by the Witt Moreauville Company, which has a claim for $2,324.00, and Jackson K. Dering, owner of $350,000 stock. The company's embarrassment is attributed to troubles with the United States Steel Corporation and to the recent financial depression.

Loving Cup Presented in Appreciation of Brownsville Fight.

Washington, Mar. 5.—In appreciation of his efforts in behalf of the discharged Brownsville battalion, the negro citizens of Washington to-day presented to Ex-Senator Foraker a handsome silver loving cup.

The cup stands nearly two feet high and rests on a massive ebony base. It weighs nearly 100 ounces. Around the bowl are three handles, and on each handle are the letters "U. S. A." representing the motto of the company of the battalion. Around the base, in raised letters are the words "Twenty-Fifth United States Infantry." In the gold lining of the bowl is inscribed a quotation from a speech made by Foraker in the senate January 12, 1902, in behalf of the soldiers.

EMBROIDERY SALE EXTRAORDINARY

SATURDAY, MARCH 6TH

6000 Yards of Embroideries and Insertions

On Saturday we will hold an important sale of EMBROIDERIES and the VALUES will be long remembered by those fortunate enough to take advantage of the GREAT OFFERINGS.

Now is the accepted time to supply your needs. Hundreds of women are doing their spring white sewing and embroideries and insertions are a necessity. This sale comes right at the opportune time. The embroideries we offer consist of several large spring shipments, which we bought for this sale. New desirable patterns in cambric, nainsook and muslin.

We have divided into six great lots.

Lot 1 at 8c comprising 1500 yards of edgings and insertions that you think nothing of paying 12½c to 15c for.

Lot 2 at 12c About 1000 yards of edgings 5 to 10 inches wide, insertions 2 to 4 inches wide, values up to 20c, a beautiful assortment.

Lot 3 at 17c This is one of the largest lots, something over 1500 yds. of edgings 6 to 12 inches wide, beautiful patterns which will appeal to all lovers of embroidery. Any piece in the lot will be cheap at 25c and some would sell for even more.

Lot 4 at 19c About 700 yards of embroideries for flouncing, 15 to 20 inches wide. This is a very important lot which run in lengths only 4½ to 5 yds. Women will readily appreciate that these embroideries are worth much more money.

Lot 5 at 28c 1000 yards of embroideries, 18 inches wide, for flouncings and corset covers, 300 yards of insertions about 6 inches wide, exquisite patterns in this lot. They will go fast.

Lot 6 at 38c 200 yards of 24 inch flouncings, worth from 50c to 75c. These will not last long at this price.

IT is a source of much satisfaction to us to have people realize that when we make a special sale it means unusual values for the prices asked, and women are eager to take advantage of the saving possibilities. This great embroidery sale will strengthen The Big Store's position as being the leading dry goods center in Southern Wisconsin, being able to buy larger lots than other stores, which means the lowest possible prices.

output of 2,500,000 pounds one-third was marketed in North Dakota at seven and one-half cents a pound, or $187,000. It requires an outlay of at least $200,000 for machinery and buildings, possibly double or treble this sum, says the editorial. "If we added to this another $100,000 for cost of floor, one can begin to form some idea of what it cost the state of Indiana to engage in the making of prison twine to supply the farmers of North Dakota at perhaps a cent and a half or two cents a pound, less than anybody else could afford to do."

Wonderful business proposition, isn't it? There are in Indiana between 1,500 and 2,000 dealers in farm machinery, all taxpayers, whose money helped build this prison twine mill, and for this they must meet in direct competition in the field, twine made by prison labor, to take away part of their revenues. And this is politics, and prison stripes used to sandbag taxpayers, that politicians may tell the farmers what is being done for them and how the legislators love them.

"Outside of Minnesota, no prison twine factory has made a business showing that could not be discounted by private enterprise, even though the labor is prison labor, and until a detailed statement can be secured from Warden Walker of the Minnesota state prison, covering every detail, even the claims of prison twine profits should be discounted. There are other channels in which the prison labor can be more profitably employed."

MISS ADJUTANT ALCOCK, LEADER OF SALVATION ARMY BRIGADE

DID HE TAKE HIS LIFE OR RUN AWAY?

Newark Man Leaves Note Saying He Has Jumped Into River—Friends Say He Skipped Out.

Beloit, Wis., March 5.—Peter Knutson, who resides in the town of Newark, committed suicide yesterday. The only clue to his whereabouts is a note mailed from Beloit yesterday and received this morning by J. C. Hanson, chairman of the township of Newark, which says: "When you get this my troubles will be over. Rock River is my only friend. See my brothers and provide for my wife and child." The last seen of Mr. Knutson was in Beloit yesterday morning at half-past seven. He sold a load of corn for $100 and has not been seen since. Friends believe that the note may be only a blind and that he has gone to the state of Washington, where his divorced wife lives. He leaves here a young wife and one child. He is about fifty years of age. After working for one week, Miss Hattie Cousins discovered today that her shoulder had been broken one week ago by a fall at the skating rink. She had suffered no pain until this morning while working at her typewriter, when her shoulder blade snapped. A physician was called and the injury taken care of.

HIGH SCHOOL TEAM PLAYS IN WAUKESHA

Basketball Players Go to Compete With Waukesha High School.

In the gymnasium of the Waukesha high school tonight, the local high school basketball team will compete with the Waukesha players. The game was secured for tonight in place of the nineteenth of this month in order that the boys might play against the Freeport players in Beloit on the night of the Interstate debate. The team is in its best condition and it is expected that the boys will put up a fast, good game. While they were defeated in the game with Whitewater Normal, they were considerably handicapped because the floor had been used for dancing and was very slippery. The skill with which Murphy threw baskets in the last game has given the boys much encouragement and the star of hope shines brightly for them. They leave for Waukesha this afternoon and will return tomorrow as there are no trains west this evening. The men who will make up the squad which will play are: Frank Robertson, Verno Merrill, Rono Koch, Earl Tippet, and Edmund Murphy.

To increase Avoidance.
Among many peoples fat is considered a sign of beauty and should this not come naturally artificial means are resorted to. In Egypt the women burn and grind up black beetles and mix them with beef fat, sesame oil and mufetta. This mixture is hotted together and a cupful of the liquor taken daily by women desirous of getting fat. In England in the middle ages the ladies used the fat of the lizard when desirous of becoming stout.

True and False Happiness.
True happiness is of a retired nature, and an enemy to pomp and noise; it arises, in the first place, from the enjoyment of one's self; and in the next, from the friendship and conversation of a few select companions. False happiness loves to be in a crowd, and to draw the eyes of the world upon her. She does not receive any satisfaction from the applause which she gives herself, but from the admiration which she raises in others.—Addison.

OUR FASHION EXHIBITION

The garments now on exhibit are typical of the accepted and authoritative fashion for the season to come. We desire to impress upon you the fact that our efforts in making this collection were not confined solely to the higher priced kinds, for we have gone to the extreme to procure very extensive assortments of garments at popular prices. The demand for apparel that is "different", we have met upon a larger scale than ever before.

Every one should see this splendid exhibit in its entirety, for an hour or more spent here will give a correct interpretation of the styles to be worn this season.

The typical suit for Spring—the one every woman should have—will be plain and tailored. It will have a slightly shaped or semi-fitted back, a mannish collar and sleeve, and the length will be from thirty-two to thirty-six inches. The skirt will be gored and plain tailored.

The popular fabrics for spring will be satin faced cloths, fine serges and trunellans, in all shades of blues, old rose, wistaria, cantawba, cedar, grays, greens and the mode shades. Gray worsted materials in mannish effects will be in great demand. Stripes will also be in vogue.

The trimmings harmonize with the fabric. Instead of contrasting, hence we have self strip trimmings in the same color as the garment. Buttons will enter largely into the scheme of ornamentation. They will be oval shaped and covered with fabric from which the garment is made.

In suit coats, hipless and half fitted jackets, thirty-two to thirty-six inches long will be popular cut-away and straight front. The coat sleeves show quite a change and are long and narrow, many of them being set in the shoulder almost entirely without gathers, similar to men's coat sleeves.

Prices Are $12.50 to $48.00

The public is cordially invited to these services.

Practical Tools

To produce a level surface requires a keen plane; to make an exact mortise calls for a true-edged chisel; to bore a smooth hole you must have a clean bit in a steady brace; to saw a straight edge demands a perfect saw; and so on through the realm of practical work.

Tools that get out of order quickly are useless to the worker. Right here the value of

KEEN KUTTER

Tools and Cutlery

becomes supreme. Scientifically forged, shaped, tempered and finished, they not only do their work with absolute accuracy, but maintain their fine working qualities through thick and thin.

Thus the name Keen Kutter stands everywhere for the most practical tools for practical work; a name, in fact, that makes you an expert in tool buying. This is worth remembering when next you buy tools.

Keen Kutter tools include Carpenter Tools of all kinds, also Forks, Hoes, Scythes, Trowels, Pruning Knives, Mature Hooks, Lawn Mowers, Grass Shears, Rakes and all kinds of Farm and Garden Tools. Also a full line of Scissors and Shears, Pocket Knives and Table Cutlery.

A glance at our window display will quickly dispel any doubt as to the completeness of this line.

GREATEST BASEBALL GRANDSTAND IN THE WORLD.

Philadelphia.—Built of steel and concrete, with a seating capacity of 23,000 and standing room upon and about it for 27,000 more, the Philadelphia American League's new baseball grandstand is the greatest in the world, and far and away the most durable and the most ornate. It is different from the usual run of grandstands as the modern opera house is different from the circus tent. It is fireproof, crowdproof, waterproof. It is even proof against the small boy out side, for the concrete wall have no knotholes.

This huge structure, erected on Shilbe park, the new grounds purchased by the "Athletics," is an architectural triumph, as well as the greatest baseball monument in America—and therefore in the world. It is nearly completed and will be ready to the last detail for the grand inaugural of the baseball season of 1909 on April 12, when the Athletics will cross bats with the Boston team in the first game of the struggle for the pennant. It will be a day memorable in baseball circles, for nearly all clubs of the American league will be here and in uniform, to join in a grand march around the big field.

The pavilion of the new grandstand, as shown in the picture, is of French Renaissance style of architecture, with walls of brick and terra cotta trimmings. The mansard roof is of green slate. The lower pavilion is of reinforced concrete throughout, and the upper pavilion of steel construction. Even the bleachers and the walls enclosing the new park are of reinforced concrete and steel.

There are seven entrances to the grandstand and eight to the bleachers. Besides these there are eight big exits from field and grandstand, and it is calculated that 50,000 people can comfortably get out of the park in five minutes.

In the lower pavilion there are 5,500 chairs, and in the upper 4,500 chairs. The bleachers, allowing 18 inches for each person, will seat 12,000 persons, while the number that can stand in the great promenade of the pavilion and on the huge field will bring the total that can be admitted to see the opening game up to 50,000.

No home runs are likely to be made on balls over the fence. The grounds extend 492 feet in one direction and 520 in the other. From the home plate to the fence along the right field foul line is 278 feet.

CONGRESS MAY CHANGE DATE OF INAUGURATION

Blizzard Which Spoiled Yesterday's Exercises Powerful Argument for a Constitutional Amendment.

Washington, Mar. 5.—The blizzard which yesterday had Washington and the east in its grasp and marred the pleasure of 300,000 persons who had journeyed to the capital to see William H. Taft take the place of Theodore Roosevelt as president of the United States, probably will have the effect of changing the date of presidential inaugurations.

For several years there has been a movement in the capital to change the date on account of the bad weather which usually prevails here on inauguration day. In 1901 a bill was prepared and introduced in congress, providing for a date in April, but although it was passed by the senate the house refused to adopt it. The measure provided for a constitutional amendment, which is necessary to change the date.

After yesterday's experience, however, it is not believed that the house will again oppose such a measure and, before another president is inaugurated, it is likely that the change will be made. Many members of congress express themselves in favor of the change and but few of those asked for an opinion were against it.

When President Roosevelt and President-elect Taft, after spending the night in the White house, met yesterday morning in the breakfast room the first thing they did was to look through the window at the blizzard which raged outside.

"Mr. President," said Taft, "even the elements protest."

"Mr. President-elect," rejoined Roosevelt, "I know there would be a blizzard up to the very minute I went out of office."

But neither of the distinguished protagonists realized the full extent of the storm or the damage it had already wrought.

Japanese Press Felicitates Taft.

Tokyo, Mar. 5.—The press of Japan continues to felicitate President Taft upon his inauguration and is unanimous in rejoicing over the fact that his knowledge of Japan is based upon his personal observations while a visitor in the empire. The papers say that in consequence of this the friendship between Japan and the United States is certain to be strengthened materially during President Taft's term of office.

Danville, Ill., Mar. 5.—Charles E. Brown, a prominent Danville lawyer, who was indicted at the September term of the federal grand jury on a charge of being a maker of spurious coin, was reindicted yesterday morning on the same charge.

CONDENSERS AMERICAN BEEF.

Medical Office of London Makes Hot Retort to Authorities.

London, Mar. 5.—Startling allegations concerning the diseased condition of some recent consignments of American meat are contained in a report by Dr. Williams, medical officer of the port of London, presented to the city council at the Guild hall yesterday.

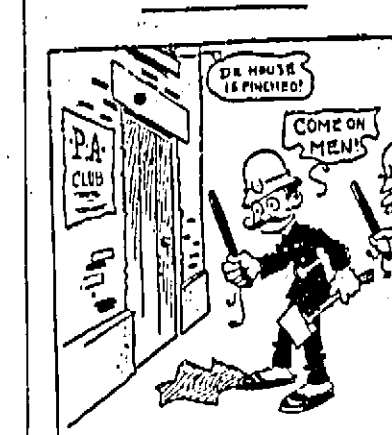

In a shipment of meat that arrived February 2 consisting of tongues, kidneys, liver, tripe, lamb plucks and sweetbreads, Dr. Williams reports that he found 528 sheep livers and 130 lungs diseased out of a total of 2,400. There were also 300 frozen carcasses on board this ship, of which 15 were minus the lymphatic glands. One carcass was affected with tuberculosis. "There is no necessity," Dr. Williams says, "of removing the lymphatic glands, unless with some specific object, and presumably in the case of the 16 carcasses found without glands they had been discovered, on inspection in the United States, to show some evidence of disease."

Iowa Editors Form Organization.

Des Moines, Ia., Mar. 5.—Iowa editors and publishers last night formed the Iowa Associated Dailies, an organization to fight impending alleged harmful legislation aimed at restricting objectionable advertising which the publishers say is not questionable. They appeared before the senate yesterday. Officers elected are: President, E. P. Adler, Dayton Times; vice-president, J. C. Kelly, Sioux City Tribune; secretary and treasurer, Lafayette Young, Jr., Des Moines Capital.

SCIENCE AND INVENTION

FOR WAXING THREAD

Device Holds Spool and Coats Thread as It Is Used.

Hitherto the waxing of thread was a time and tedious process. A California woman has changed this by devising a thread holder and waxer that does the work automatically and can be used either on a machine or for handwork. The device consists of a metal casing forming a part cylinder and large enough to accommodate a spool. The cylinder is of spring metal, so that it can be spread open to receive the spool, and has inward projections to prevent the thread from falling out. One side of the casing has an extension fitted to receive a cone of beeswax, guiding grooves for the thread to pass through and a sharp edge on which the thread can be cut. The spool revolves within the cylinder as the thread is unwound and the latter is found especially convenient in shoe factories or other factories where waxed thread is used, as it can be attached to the machinery. Shoemakers, too, can fasten it to their heels and save much time in preparing their thread.

A PIANO-VIOLIN

Played Like Piano, but Sounds Like a Violin.

From Austria-Hungary, whence come so many things modeled, comes a new musical instrument which is known as the piano-violin. It looks like a harp, sounds like a violin and is played like a piano. As shown in the cut, the upper portion of the instrument consists of a series of strings, each of which is operated by one of the keys on the piano keyboard. Across these strings runs a traveling band which performs the function of a bow, except that in the case of this instrument the strings come out to meet the bow instead of the bow moving back and forth from the strings. Each string is attached to a pivoted arm and as the key is struck the arm moves outward and the string comes in contact with the traveling band, producing the sound of a bow scraping a fiddle string. A spring pulls the arm back into place when the pressure on the key is relieved and a pedal at the bottom of the instrument regulates the sound.

JOINTED GLOVE-TREE

Fingers Move From Side to Side and Bend Over.

For the cleaning or repairing of gloves a Michigan man has invented a glove tree that is a big improvement on the old style form used for that purpose. The improvement consists in the fact that the fingers of the new tree are movable and so joined that they can be moved readily from side to side or doubled over at the knuckles so as to make a glove tree closely resembling the old form being shaped like a hand and forearm but instead of being a solid piece the fingers are attached separately and are placed at the knuckle joints by strong elastic pivots that permit of the bending of the fingers in any direction. The new tree is a great improvement on the old style form. The bending of the fingers stretches the glove as it would be stretched if worn on the hand and permits a smooth surface, especially over the knuckles and the joint of the thumb, where it is subjected to much wear and soles quickly.

FOR TRIMMING PIES

Utensil Crips Cough and Performs its Job.

When anyone mentions that great American institution, the pie, many allusions are made to it and take notice. Consequently, it is not only a household word but also the interest of a New York man by which the making of pies can be expedited. This device is known as a "trimmer and crimper," and consists of two rotary disks, lying one against the other, and with a handle by which they can be revolved along flat disks are provided with teeth along their edges, but one is smaller than the other and acts as a gauge. When this utensil is run in a circle over a flat strip of dough it cuts out a round piece and "crimps" it at the same time. This crimping process causes the crust to bake with the crimping little puckers around the edges, that used to be made by pinching the dough. Another use for the device is to perforate the dough so the steam can escape while the pie is baking.

President Roosevelt was assured by no less than 12 eminent engineers that the Gatun Dam would be perfectly safe. Then President Roosevelt was assured by 12 other just as eminent engineers that the Gatun Dam would be a fiasco. Then we had it that the Gatun Dam had sunk 12 feet. Then that it had bobbed up 20 feet. Then that it was wondering whether to sink or bob. Then that it was founded on blue clay and would gradually slip across the isthmus and bring up against a boarding-house. Then that it was founded on strictly moral principles and would remain right there until Senator Tillman made a speech tearing it out by the roots.

OUT OF RIGHT. First Sportsman—I thought this blundered thing would be the trick for hunting birds, but I'll be blown if we have seen one since we've been out.

MARCEL WAVES EASILY MADE

Device Which Does the Trick in a Few Minutes.

The younger members of the feminine sex will be glad to know that they can now "marcel wave" their own hair at home, thus doing away with hairdressers' bills. The fact that this popular form of arranging the hair formerly required the services of the expert hairdresser limited its use. Now, with the aid of the contrivance shown here, every girl can now arrange her hair in "marcel waves." The operation is simple and quick, requiring but first the use of a metal cap (shown) which is placed over the hair. This cap is formed of a number of circular corrugations, and is lined with felt.

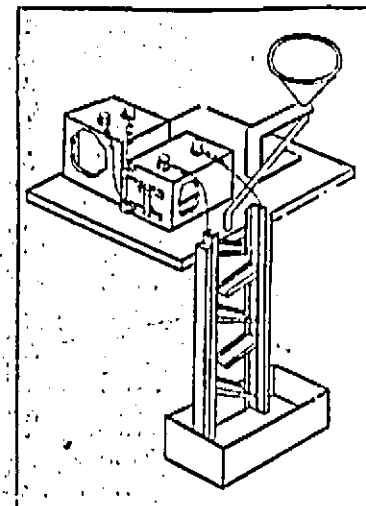

FOR MAKING "MARCEL WAVES" QUICKLY.

A smaller cap, but of a greater diameter, is also used. After the smaller cap has been placed on the head, the hair is thrown up over it. The larger cap is then placed over the first one. The heat imparted to the hair between the corrugations of the two caps will cause it to form into permanent wavelets. The primary cap has an opening at the top in which the surplusage of hair is tucked. The heating cap is manipulated by a suitable nonconductive handle. This device should prove of economical advantage to the fair sex, saving much time in trip to and from the hairdressers. In addition, the whole operation can be performed in a few minutes.

ELECTRIC CREAM SEPARATOR

Simple Apparatus Quickly Separates the Cream From the Milk.

It is now possible to separate cream from milk by the employment of electricity, the process requiring much less time than with the costly cream separator now in use. The process consists in passing an electric current through the milk to be treated, the passage of the current causing the separation of the cream from the milk. The apparatus necessary is shown in the accompanying illustration, the invention of a Kansas City man. The milk is poured into the funnel at the top and drops through the tube onto the inclined plates, arranged one above the other. Current is supplied from adjacent storage batteries. As the passage down the plates the milk will alternately be subjected to positive and negative current, causing the rapid separation of the particles of cream. The milk and cream will finally drop into the receptacle at the bottom, the cream collecting upon the surface, where it can be readily removed by skimming. The inventor claims that the alternating current is preferable, effecting a quicker separation of the cream than can be obtained by currents passing in one direction.

SPECIAL DISEASES

REQUIRE THE ATTENTION OF

SPECIAL PHYSICIANS

Strong, Vigorous Men and Women

That is what we desire to be. Some fail in this respect through misfortune, others through indiscretion and quite a good many others from neglect. Whatever the cause may be in your case remember a weak constitution is a handicap to success. It is an unnecessary handicap, because you can in all probability be cured, and your weakness or disease removed. The effort you should make is to consult a reliable and experienced specialist.

A physician who has made a specialty of Nervous and Chronic diseases and who is recognized a leader in the profession,

DR. W. E. SHALLENBERGER

Comes to Janesville, TUESDAY, MARCH 9th, and will be at the Myers Hotel from 8:00 a. m. until 5:30 p. m.

Many of Southern Wisconsin's citizens have been cured by Dr. Shallenberger, and he is well known in Janesville and vicinity. That his services have been very satisfactory is proven by the fact that since 1904 he has visited Janesville every 28 days, and also by hundreds of letters received from his patients, a few of which are printed at the bottom of this column.

He undertakes to cure permanently the cases he accepts, and sends those who cannot be benefited home without taking a fee from them. This is the reason he continues his visits year after year while other doctors have made a few visits and stopped.

Dr. Shallenberger is the most successful Specialist in the State in the treatment of NERVOUS and CHRONIC DISEASES, proven by the many cures effected in chronic cases which have baffled the skill of many other physicians. His experience has made him so proficient that he can name and locate a disease in a few minutes.

Special Attention Given All Surgical Cases

DISEASES OF MEN

He knows that thousands of men who are suffering from melancholy, despondency, excesses, or overwork have been disappointed so often that they are discouraged and have almost given up all hope of ever being cured. Dr. Shallenberger is familiar with the teachings and methods of all schools of medicine, and does not confine himself to any particular one. He treats his patients to cure them, and uses without prejudice whatever will accomplish that result.

DR. SHALLENBERGER SUCCESSFULLY TREATS CATARRH IN ALL ITS FORMS
Diseases of the Nose, Throat, Eye and Ears, deafness and ringing in the ears. Diseases of the Stomach, Bowels and Liver are curable if correctly treated. The most stubborn cases of indigestion and catarrh of the stomach will yield to treatment, and a short time will convince you of the greatness of the truth of this claim. Call Stone cases should investigate my treatment before submitting to an operation as my treatment rarely fails.

CHRONIC KIDNEY AND BLADDER TROUBLES
respond quickly and should not be neglected. Hundreds of people who have kidney trouble are refused life insurance every year, who were unaware of its existence.

GOITRE (BIG NECK) Come and let me tell you of the cases I have cured.

PILES, FISTULA AND ALL RECTAL DISEASES Treated without the use of the knife and will remain cured.

A VISIT WILL TELL

Perhaps you are suffering in silence; perhaps you have been unsuccessfully treated; perhaps you anticipate that relief can be secured only through radical surgery; but more likely you consider your case hopeless. Don't despair, even though you have not been successful heretofore. There may be health in store for you yet; a useful life of happiness and prosperity. A visit to my office will tell; surely it is worth the trouble, as health is a prime necessity, a most valuable asset, paramount to almost everything a human being can possess. DO NOT BE SATISFIED UNTIL YOU HAVE BEEN EXAMINED BY DR. SHALLENBERGER.

You may be sent away happy without treatment, but with advice that will save you time and money, as well as mental anxiety. If you require treatment you will be treated skillfully and restored to health within the shortest time and at the least possible expense.

Read the Following Endorsements From a Few Prominent Wisconsin Citizens:

PURE BLOOD

THE SECRET OF A GOOD COMPLEXION—HOW TO ATTAIN IT.

Sufferers are beginning to realize that external applications will not rid the skin of the disfigurements of eczema, pimples, blackheads, rashes, etc. The remedy must go deeper, to the seat of the trouble—the blood. And it is for this reason that the preparation known as Dr. Taylor's Remedy has been so successful, and has become so widely known and used. This really great blood purifier absolutely destroys all the poisonous germs in the system, that cause skin blemishes. Its quick and thorough action, in even the worst cases of eczema, has number of patients who had despaired of relief under the ordinary treatment of physicians and "so-called" remedies. The record of Dr. Taylor's Remedy is therefore one of unflinching success, and in its use is surely found the secret of a clear, beautiful complexion.

An illustrated booklet describing this remedy will be mailed free by the Dr. Taylor Remedy Co., Philadelphia, and the remedy itself and booklet can be obtained at Smith Drug Co., and at all first-class druggists.

GREEN FIELDS AND
FLOWERS OF EASTER

Mrs. E. E. McDaniel Writes of Coming of Spring Days in Sunny Tennessee.

Hillsboro, Tenn., March 1.—Dear
Gazette: Since my last letter to you I have been very busy answering letters to your readers who have written me to the Gazette. I have answered all who sent stamps and will take this way to answer all who asked me to write some more for the paper. We got the paper now and it seems like a visit with old friends.

I was sorry to learn that the Christian church at Hillsboro was burned.
Mrs. Fred Snyder sent me a beautiful card picture of the church as it used to be. I could not help thinking of the day long ago when they told me that our old home where father and mother lived so long and we children used to meet so often was burned. It is much the same. A new church will be built but the old time home-like little church is gone.

Let us, too, tell of your storms and snow and blizzards. I know it is all true, but cannot make it seem possible.

We have not had any more than half an inch of snow this winter, but have had some windy days and chilly weather. Sometimes ice has formed nearly an inch thick, but spring is the best.

The Easter flowers are all in bloom. Wheat, rye and oats are very green and the fields look fine, but our roads just now are worse than common owing to heavy rains. I went to Hillsboro last Saturday and was sorry a good many times that I had ever undertaken the trip. We just plunged along in deep mud holes, sometimes one side of the survey would almost tip to the side of the road only to have over in a second to the other side and we hanging on to keep from being thrown out. The poor mules—I will never forget their names, "Toby" and "Jack"—how I pitied them. When we got to Hillsboro we found the town full of mud and horses and I thought, "well, there are others." Then I found out it was "Solo day."

Everybody was there to sell or buy.
As I had never seen such a side-saw before it was a surprise to me how they ever got such a number of good mules together over such terrible roads. But our "Toby" and "Jack" were as good as new when we hitched up and started home. Most of the mud holes had vanished in the bright sunshine and wind. We could see all the rats that were so troublesome in the morning and we came home almost too fast sometimes for there were so many teams and "Toby" did not want anybody to go around.

There seems to be quite a lot of tobacco just now. Some have been seed and some are ready to be cut. I have heard some to know just how to get the plants raised and cured on a large scale but all agree that they grow large and fine if taken care of, but curing is the unresolved problem. I have heard some people that claimed they knew all about it say that "nearly all believe in shed for air cured tobacco—just hang it on the fence or anywhere, and when you see a storm coming down take it all in, then you have fine tobacco."

People are surely going to try some tobacco this year. I wish some of our Wisconsin growers were here to show them how. A family from Leroy, Wis., are now holding about three miles from our making butter and are doing well.

The lumber business has not recovered from the panic. The mills have moved away and the lumber men must have gone with the mills.
Nobody ever sees a lumber buyer nowadays but have heard of them quietly looking the woods over in preparation for buying again. Most in the woods have been troublesome and our own place has not escaped. Fifty acres of tall, dry grass catching and burning fiercely. The flames reflected on the clouds and were seen for many miles.

The weather has been fine most of the time. We could have enjoyed this winter but for the long days that will come in spite of every effort to make the best of all the trouble and sorrow that has come to us. Answering so many letters has helped to pass the time away and maybe has helped others a little too.

I am glad the Gazette has got settled in the new home. No use wishing them success, they always have that.

WILL ORGANIZE BOYS'
NATURE STUDY CLUB

H. L. Skavlem Will Give Talk Next Saturday and Library Outdoor Club Will Be Formed.

Says Oliver Wendell Holmes,
"Those who are fully awake to the slights and sounds which the procession of the months offer them, find an endless entertainment and instruction. Yet there are multitudes who are present at as many as three scores and ten performances, without ever really looking at the scenery, or listening to the music, or observing the chief actors." Few people who do not learn to observe nature and the things about them in their youth, rarely ever learn to notice them at all. To boys, the woods, the creatures in them, and the birds are unusually interesting and attractive, but too often their interest soon wanes for lack of a real instructor who is familiar with all forms of nature and who can tell them what they wish to know.

Saturday morning at 10:30 in the Children's room of the public library, Mr. H. L. Skavlem will give an informal talk on birds and bird study.
The boys of the city are especially invited to hear this talk and at the close a Library Outdoor club will be organized.

This club will meet every Saturday morning for the purpose of outdoor study and will aim to encourage the members in the habit of observation.
A record of the spring bird migration will be kept posted on a bulletin board in the Children's room.

In connection with the outdoor work the members of the club will find that reading the works of standard authors pose the librarian has prepared a list of books which will be helpful to the young naturalists.

WORK GIVEN UP BY
ORFORDVILLE EDITOR

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Orfordville, March 4.—No doubt many will be surprised to learn that S. H. Graves, the bustling editor of the Orfordville Journal, has given up the work here and left on Monday, accompanied by his sister, for Bogard, Mo., where he will edit a paper. The editor and his sister have made many friends during their short stay here, but they did not like the climate as well here as they did in Missouri. For that reason they returned to their home state. The new editor, G. W.
Myers, of Freeport, arrived with his family on Monday. Mr. Myers has had a number of years' experience in the newspaper business and no doubt he will do all in his power to make the Journal a success. J. W.
Graves of Forrest, Ill., the owner of the plant, was in the village on Monday.

Remember the lecture by Henry Clark on Saturday evening of this week at Week's opera-house.

Dr. Fairman of Brookhead was in the village on Wednesday.

We are glad to report that H. C.
Taylor is now able to be out again.

E. N. Hansen, accompanied by his brother, Arnon of Polk, Rapids, Minn., went to Washington last week to attend the inauguration exercises.

Miss Alice Gavey sold her stock of merchandise to Albert Mickelson of Newark. Mr. Mickelson has moved to the village and has taken possession of the store vacated by Miss Gavey. He has employed Oliver Wee as clerk.

Gottfried Rogers, who has been the cheesemaker at the Deesey factory, moved to Monticello on Tuesday.

Miss Sarah Call of Battle Creek, Mich., is spending a few days at J.
M. Cleveland's and C. S. Dunn's.

Mrs. Nick Larson spent last week at her son's, Alvin of Beloit, helping to care for his children, who have been very sick.

On Wednesday Justice Chase Taylor gave John Johnson twenty days in the county jail for being drunk and disorderly.

ROCK RIVER MILLS
RUNNING FULL TIME

Present Business Is Good and Prospects for Future Trade Are Very Bright.

With their mill running full time and their employees pushing every loom, jack, dresser, driver, and speeder to the limit in order to keep abreast of the orders, the proprietors of the Rock River Wooden Mills may be said to be satisfied with both present conditions and future prospects.

The mill has been running full force and full time since last September, but before that time the manufacture of lumber was curtailed to the point of running only eight hours. At present eighty operators are employed, twenty-eight to run the looms and the remainder to prepare the raw material and finish the goods.

There is little diversity in the goods made, no high colors, wasted of cambrage, but the sole cloth produced are different colored Meltons.

The factory is now engaged on various styles for the fall trade. The goods manufactured are handled almost exclusively by Curtis & Warren, the large wholesale house of Chicago, and if the local mill faces as well as others, which have long been selling to that house, there is little chance that there will be a lack of work for some time to come.

DISAPPEARED.
Coffee Alla Vanish Before Postum.

It seems almost too good to be true, the way headache, nervousness, insomnia, and many other obscure troubles vanish when coffee is dismissed and Postum used as the regular table beverage.

The reason is clear. Coffee contains a poisonous drug—caffeine—which causes the trouble, but Postum contains only the food elements in clean hard wheat with a little New Orleans molasses.

A Phila. man grew enthusiastic recently and wrote as follows:—

"Until 18 months ago I used coffee regularly every day and suffered from headache, bitter taste in my mouth, and indigestion; was gloomy and taciturnous, had variable or absent appetite, loss of flesh, depressed in spirits, etc., I attribute these things to coffee, because since I have drunk Postum I feel better than I had for 20 years, am less susceptible to cold, have gained 20 lbs. and all the above symptoms have disappeared—vanished before Postum." "There's a Reason."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville" in pkgs. of Postum.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They

MUCH EXCITEMENT IN
GREEN CO. ELECTION

Fight in Monroe For Aldermen and For County Judge Promises to be a Red Hot One.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Monroe, Wis., March 4.—The election of aldermen in Monroe at the coming election promises to be more interesting than heretofore because of the resolution adopted by the city council providing for salaries for the aldermen and mayor. Four aldermen who are to be elected four weeks hence will be the first to get the benefit of the salary. This salary question promises to figure in the election in another direction as there is much opposition to the council's action and as all of the retiring aldermen voted for salaries, this opposition will be active in seeking to defeat those aldermen in case they are candidates for re-election. In addition to four aldermen the city elects four supervisors. The election of a county judge promises to give the election much life as determined effort will be made to defeat J. M. Becker, who has held the office for three terms.
Becker is a democrat and has been successful in former elections because of the multiplicity of republican candidates. This year his only opponent will be J. L. Sherron, a leading member of the Green county bar and former district attorney of the county.
The fight promises to be red-hot and the victory for Mr. Sherron should be easy because of public disfavor toward Becker which has been growing during the present term.

Miss Anna Stauffer and Mr.
John Butler were married yesterday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stauffer, in Sylvester, where the event was celebrated by a large number of relatives and friends. The groom is a son of George Butler, of this city.

Relatives here have been notified of the death of Edward Fitzgerald, which occurred yesterday at Farley, Ia. He was 65 years of age.

Daisy Dean Holloway, 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ada Holloway, of Milwaukee, died of pneumonia yesterday. The body was brought over today for burial.

Will White, who has been farming at Jefferson, left today for Kingston, Iowa, with his household goods and will locate there.

Misses Maria and Nettie Brown have gone to Elk City, Kas., to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Woodman and daughter are here from Chicago on a visit to relatives. Mr. Woodman is a well known Chicago cartoonist.

Cheesemakers of the county, who have been spending the winter here held a ball at Turner hall last evening, which was a big affair. The fac-torymen will soon be leaving for the country to prepare for the summer's operations.

Mrs. Louise Walcott of Milwaukee is visiting relatives here.

EXCELLENT PLAY AT
MYERS' LAST NIGHT

"The First Violin" Proved Most Acceptable to Good-Sized Audience Which Attended.

Last evening at the Myers theatre, a most excellent troupe headed by Tru S. Janes, as "The First Violin," presented a drama that awakened in the fair-sized audience present, a southerly interest. The story is one that appeals to the sympathy of every one who hears it. It tells of the way in which the careless and spendthrift wife of a Conservator spends all his money and then drives him into exile by initiating his handwriting on a check. He burles the secret of the crime in his heart and going far-away secures employment in a theatre where he is known as "The First Violin." His wife, however, at this time is his little son, who is his pride and joy, but the heartless woman tries to rob him of that pleasure in life. The meeting of a beautiful English girl in a railroad station and the subsequent acquaintance and love affair, bring a happy ending to all his troubles.

Mr. Janes' acting is splendid, and he is supported by a high-class company. Miss Ella May Pitch gave a very good representation of the character of May Widdowburn, the English girl, and shows excellent qualities as a singer.

Freeport Educators Here: The
heating plant and ventilation system at the local high school were inspected yesterday by four members of the Freeport, Ill., board of education. The visitors are soon to have new plants installed in the Freeport building and are looking for suggestions in the neighboring cities.

Body and Soul.

Phillip Brook wrote: "The care of the body and the care of the soul are not two duties, but two parts of one duty."
